

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CALLING ALL BODYSEARCH COMPETITORS

MARINE CORPS BASE HAWAII, Kaneohe Bay, April 27, 2011 –

BayFest 2011 brings back the BodySearch Fitness Competition on Sunday, July 17 at 3:00 p.m. and invites Hawaii’s finest and fittest competitors to vie for the coveted title of king and queen of BayFest and win cash and prizes. This free and for-fun competition is open to all entrants ages 18 and over.

Contestants will model fitness and swimsuit attire and be judged on personality, physique, and interviewing skills. A panel of judges will select the winner, and the first through third place finishers will take home cash and prizes. Interested participants can register at BayFestHawaii.com. For more information, please call 254-7595.

BayFest is an annual event hosted by Marine Corps Community Services and MCB Hawaii. BayFest 2011 kicks off on Friday, July 15 and will be held throughout the week of July 16 and is open to the general public. 2011 highlights include three nights of music: Friday, July 15 with Hawaiian music legends Cecilio & Kapono and fireworks; Saturday, July 16 with rock bands Puddle of Mudd and Hoobastank; Sunday, July 17 with country music sensation Joe Nichols. Family fun includes the Marine Forces Pacific Band, E.K. Fernandez carnival rides and games, military displays, and competitions. Visit BayFestHawaii.com for more information.

MCCS provides morale, welfare and recreation programs and services which attribute to readiness and retention of Marines, Sailors and family members stationed aboard MCB Hawaii. Proceeds from this and other MCCS events are reinvested into quality of life programs at MCB Hawaii. For more information, visit MCCSHawaii.com.
